

"BUILDING FAIR FUTURES"

FAIRMORE

FAMILY LAW FINANCIAL SOLUTIONS

Divorce Financial Settlement Experts
Collaborative Financial Professionals
Divorce Process Coaches
Financial Mediators
Support Analytics & Reviews
Pre-Nuptial Financial Analysis

647.409.1650 | www.fairmore.ca

BUILDING FAIR FUTURES

- Providing financial analysis & options that deliver realistic settlements customized to your family
- Delivering matrimonial asset division & support options
- Collection and analysis of financial disclosure
- Lifestyle analysis to support the family's transition from one to two households
- Objective assessment of financial proposals helping both parties achieve an acceptable agreement
- Customized child & spousal support analysis reflecting changes in your life
- Client-centered mediation of financial issues that focus on your goals, interests & concerns
- Working with your advisors to preserve wealth & relationships
- Financial analysis for couples considering cohabitation and pre-nuptial agreements
- Connecting you to a network of experienced, client-centered legal, family and financial advisors ensuring your family is always in the best of hands

CONSIDER

1

What approach do you want to take?

Understand all of your process choices and the benefits and challenges of each approach. What is the best approach for you and your family?

2

Who should be your advisors?

Your family's needs are unique. Tap into our professional network – financial, emotional, parenting and legal. Our firm offers a complete "concierge" experience.

WHAT WE HEAR THE MOST

- What are my process choices?
- I'm worried about having to go to court. Should I contact a family lawyer?
- I've heard mediation is faster and less expensive. Is this a better alternative?
- I've heard about a new approach, collaborative family law. What's that about?
- How do we manage the process to preserve our wealth and our family relationships?
- I'm afraid my spouse will take advantage of me or conceal money and assets.
- I don't know a lot about our family finances and don't know what to ask for.
- I'm worried that my spouse will take most of my income, leaving me with little to live on.
- How do we manage our finances as we go through this process?
- I'm in deep emotional pain. Who can help me?
- Our children are very upset we are separating. How can we help them adjust?
- What financial information do we/I need to provide?
- What is going to happen to our home/cottage?
- What about my pension?
- How do we ensure that both of us are okay moving forward with two households?

We can answer your questions at a no-cost,
no-obligation, initial consultation!

FAIRMORE

FAMILY LAW FINANCIAL SOLUTIONS

Contact us today for a no-cost/no-obligation
initial consultation

647.409.1650

www.fairmore.ca

